DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 27-49, 51 and 53, drawn to a process for obtaining and increasing yield and/or a reduced reaction time in enzymatic conversion of lactose to lactobionic acid.

Group II, claim(s) 50, 52 and 54, drawn to a different process for obtaining and increasing yield and/or a reduced reaction time in enzymatic conversion of lactose to lactobionic acid.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The technical feature that is common to the groups is a process comprising addition to a dairy substrate a carbohydrate oxidase, incubating the substrate under conditions allowing the oxidase to convert lactose to lactobionic acid, and maintaining pH at a stable level by addition of a base. However, this feature was known in the art at the time of the invention, as taught by Koka (WO 02/089292 A1; see pp. 36-37, example 12). Therefore, there is no special technical feature common to the groups that makes a contribution over the prior art.

Species Election Requirement

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Election is required of the various species of bases recited in claims 30-32.

Applicant may elect a weak base, Na_2CO_3 , NH_4OH , or CaOH_2 .

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the manner set forth above.

The following claim(s) are generic: claim 27.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The technical feature that is common to the species is a process comprising addition to a dairy substrate a carbohydrate oxidase, incubating the substrate under conditions allowing the oxidase to convert lactose to lactobionic acid, and maintaining pH at a stable level by addition of a base. However, this feature was known in the art at the time of the invention, as taught by Koka (WO 02/089292 A1; see pp. 36-37, example 12). Therefore, there is no special technical feature common to the species that makes a contribution over the prior art.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
